

After hitchhiking through Europe in search of experience, Mark Bittner moved to San Francisco determined to sink or swim as a poet-singer-songwriter. He sank. Completely bereft, he turned to spiritual seeking and ended up on the street where he spent the next 14 years. Ultimately his search led him to the wild parrot flock, which, in turn, led him back to writing, and his first book.

THE WILD PARROTS OF TELEGRAPH HILL is published in hardcover by Harmony Books, a division of Random House, and in paperback by Three Rivers Press.

The Wild Parrots of Telegraph Hill

A Love Story ... with Wings

A Film by Judy Irving featuring
Mark Bittner

The inspiring story of how one man found his life's work—and true love—among a gang of wild parrots roosting in one of America's most picturesque urban settings.

Two Thumbs UP!

"One of the most beautiful and endearing nature films you've ever seen."

—Andrew O'Behir, SALON.COM

"Wise and tender in its treatment of relationships—between birds, between people, and between birds and people."

—Jonathan Rosenbaum, CHICAGO READER

"A great, important, and unforgettable movie."

—Melissa Levine, SAN FRANCISCO WEEKLY

"It is that rare documentary that has romance, comedy, and a surprise ending that makes you feel like you could fly out of the theater like a cherry-headed conure."

—Bruce Newman, SAN JOSE MERCURY NEWS

• A thoroughly absorbing portrait of one man's discipline and commitment -- and, yes, spiritual transformation....Quite simply, a beautiful film, in both form and content. You'll laugh. You'll cry. And your heart is guaranteed to soar."

—Ann Hornaday, WASHINGTON POST

"Genuinely sweet, beautifully constructed documentary."

—Sura Wood, HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

"No animal lover will be left untouched."

—Jami Bernare, NEW YORK DAILY NEWS

"An intelligent, beautifully made and sensitive exploration of the deep relationships that can be formed between humans and other creatures."

—Mick LaSalle, SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE

"An excellent film. By all means, flock to it!"

—Phil Hall, FILM THREAT
